NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION ON THE BASIS OF DISABILITY

In accordance with applicable Federal and State laws and University policy, including Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and University of California policy PACAOS-20 (Policy on Nondiscrimination), UCLA does not discriminate on the basis of physical or mental disability. Retaliation for participation in University procedures relating to complaints of discrimination is also prohibited.

This nondiscrimination policy covers admission, access, and treatment in University programs and activities.

UCLA is committed to prohibiting disability-based discrimination and harassment, and retaliation, performing a prompt and equitable investigation of complaints alleging discrimination, and properly remedying discrimination when it occurs.

Examples of discrimination against students with disabilities include, but are not limited to: failure to engage with the student in a discussion of reasonable accommodations; failure to implement approved reasonable accommodations such as the provision of notes or extra time on tests; and exclusion of a qualified student from any course, course of study, or other educational program or activity because of the student’s disability. Disability-based harassment is conduct which is sufficiently severe, pervasive, or persistent so as to interfere with or limit an individual’s ability to participate in or benefit from the services, activities, or opportunities offered by the University.

Inquiries regarding the University's student-related nondiscrimination policies may be directed to the Office of the Dean of Students at 1104 Murphy Hall, by phone at 310/825-3871, or by e-mail at Dean@saonet.ucla.edu. An Assistant Dean is available at this office to support students who need information or assistance in filing a discrimination complaint.
